DESCRIPTION

Spacious living is the appropriate description for this location. If you rent this harmoniously designed luxury apartment in a popular Berlin location near the Großer Tiergarten not far away from the Siegessäule, you will never have any problems with storage space during your stay. A dressing room additionally helps to maintain the apartment in order. In addition to three rooms for living, sleeping and working, the recently renovated apartment has an inviting bathroom with rain shower. Enjoy your stay in the capital together with overnight guests. Other advantages of the apartment: Take a sunbath on the balcony of the accommodation. And rejoice in the underground parking space belonging to the apartment, which makes the search for a parking space needless.
